

The University of Windsor School of Music

presents

Michael Wood,
jazz vibraphonist

Masterclass

Wednesday, April 4
7:00pm in Room 126

"Vibes & The Jazz Song Book"

Hands on clinic introducing students to mallet dampening techniques, chord voicings and head approach to playing jazz material. This would include fast tracking their improvisational skills with use of the poly-harmonic approach, with realistic applications for performance. This master class is beneficial to all who aspire to play improvisational music.